

About IGCS

Select language

The mission of the International Gynecologic Cancer Society (IGCS) is to enhance the care of women with gynecologic cancer worldwide through education and training and public awareness. We achieve our mission through strategic collaborations with regional and international organizations, hosting and supporting scientific meetings, promoting research and publications, outreach, and other activities that:

- Raise public awareness of the importance of early recognition and treatment of gynecologic cancers
- Connect professionals interested in gynecologic cancers around the world
- Support research to achieve optimal care of women with gynecologic malignancies
- Provide mentorship, education, and training worldwide
