International Journal of Gynecological Cancer (IJGC) Publication

IJGC Publication All accepted abstracts of registered presenting authors are published in the International Journal of Gynecological Cancer (IJGC). Please note the below important items:

- Only abstracts of presenting authors who have finalized their registration for the IGCS 2024 Meeting as of August 20, 2024, will be included in the Journal.
- Abstracts of presenting authors who have not completed their registration by August 20, 2024, are removed from the IGCS 2024 scientific program.
 - It is the initially assigned presenting author's responsibility to notify the meeting organizers by August 20, 2024, in case they are unable to register and would like to change the presenter to another registered co-author from the author list. Registration records are checked only against the assigned presenting author details.
- Any changes past August 20, 2024, will not be reflected in the Journal publication.
